exciting herbaceous borders, a new rose border, beautiful new water features and an annual Tulip Festival held in May.

The 19th Century Mushroom House, now converted into a charming Tea Room, is open for light lunches, homemade cream teas and early evening dinner.

The Walled Garden in its incomparable setting by the sea will delight all who come to visit, and its charm, as well as horticultural spectacle, will leave an enduring memory. You will want to come back again and again.

Welcome

Welcome to Glenarm and to one of Ireland's oldest walled gardens. Dating from the 18th century and situated in the grounds of Glenarm Castle, the ancestral home of the McDonnells, Earls of Antrim, this hidden delight is open to visitors from May to September.

Since opening to the public in 2005, the restoration of The Walled Garden has continued under the stewardship of Nigel Marshall, formerly Head Gardener at the world renowned Mount Stewart. It continues to evolve as a centre of horticultural excellence with
